We do appreciate that everyone could cooperate, which will definitely facilitate the smooth running of the camp. Also, all of us will be blessed during the few days we are going to spend with our Lord, receiving both physical and spiritual refreshing from Him.

Given the safety precautions of hiking in the wild, parents of minors may consider not participating or accompanying them if they have concerns. Young parents please pay attention to the safety of young children, as the terrain of the camp is ups and downs.
